"Coming Tuesday 'Through the Clouds' in four parts."

BOURBON GIRL EN ROUTE HOME

Miss Nannie Louise Best, of Millersburg, who has been studying music in Berlin for some time, and who left there recently on account of the war scare, called Millersburg relatives Friday that she had sailed from England for home and will arrive shortly. She will probably resume her studies in New York.

THE BEST ONLY.

Nothing but good goods at Winters'.

MRS. ARMOUR'S ADDRESS.

Mrs. Mary Harris Armour, State President of the Georgia W. C. T. U., addressed an audience that taxed the capacity of the court house Sunday afternoon, in the interest of the local option campaign, which has opened in this county. Mrs. Armour is a forceful speaker, and held the undivided attention of her hearers for two hours. At night she spoke at the Methodist Church in Millersburg, to a crowded house. Many Paris people went over to hear her again.

NO WAR PRICES.

We have been receiving almost daily our merchandise for fall, both in the custom and ready-to-wear departments. It has always been the policy of this house to make no advances in the price of goods that we own. Just because a man is starving is no reason why we should charge him more for bread. There is some conscience in the matter. Goods that we own will not be advanced. If we are obliged to pay an advance later, that is another proposition.

J. W. DAVIS & CO.

STEWART BUYS FINE FARM.

One of the largest real estate deals that has been consummated here for some time was made Saturday through the agency of the Rev. J. T. Sharrard. Mr. James M. Russell sold to Mr. Lindsay Stewart, of Millersburg, 150 acres of his farm near Bethlehem, and leased the remainder of about 200 acres, to the same party for a term of years. The farm is one of the oldest and most historic in the county, having for years been the home of Mr. Jas. Martson. Mr. Russell's grandfather, who for years afterward occupied the property on Pleasant street now occupied by Mr. Brice Steele. The price paid for the farm was not given out, but it is said to be a good one.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Our attention has recently been called to reports which are being circulated to the effect, that if the rates for telephone service now being charged by another telephone company operating in Paris, are permitted to be increased, then the Home Telephone Company would go out of business.

These reports were the first intimation the Home Company had that such statements were being circulated. I can say positively, that no negotiations for the sale of the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company to, or its merger with the Bell Company, have ever been suggested or considered.

It is the intention of the Home Company to remain in business in Paris, and its greatest desire is to merit the continued patronage of its subscribers by furnishing the best possible local and long distance telephone service to the public at reasonable and fair rates at all times.

J. J. VEATCH,
District Manager, Paris Home Telephone and Telegraph Company.
